

Fixture Mount (Box) Enclosure

The Fixture Mount Box enclosure has an extended chase nipple that is used to mount the sensor through a 1/2" knockout hole to a fixture or junction box.

If the sensor's field-of-view is partially blocked by the fixture housing, the FB-1 Fixture Bracket can be used to lower the sensor down to a level where its view is not impaired.

